Ist Prabha Devi Memorial Lecture on “This era now belongs to Women”

Resource Person: Dr. Manisha Priyam

The First Prabha Devi Memorial Lecture was organized on October 21st, on the occasion of first founder's day celebration at Vijay Mandir, Alwar. Dr. Manisha Priyam, a distinguished academic, social activist, and political analyst, served as the keynote speaker for this significant event. The topic of the lecture was "This era now belongs to women." Addressing an audience of around 300 women hailing from 17 nearby villages, Dr. Priyam underscored the vital role women play in society and resonated with the shared importance of their contributions.

She spoke to audience about how this era stands as a testament to the empowerment, resilience, and brilliance of women, whose influence reverberates across every facet of society. From boardrooms to battlefields, laboratories to legislatures, women are rewriting the narrative of possibility. It is a time where barriers shatter, stereotypes crumble, and the world recognizes that its future is intricately tied to the empowerment of its female citizens.

THANKSGIVING

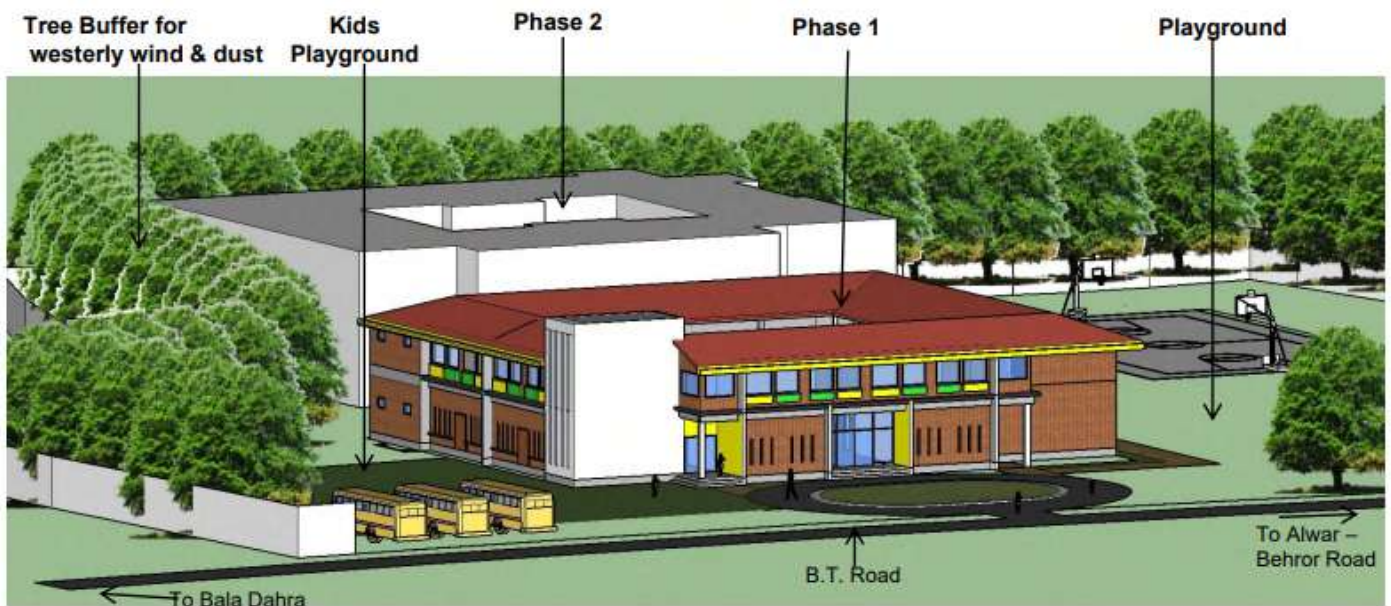

On the occasion of 19th Founder's Day of Sapna a Thanksgiving function was organized at at Vijay Mandir. The was an occasion to introspect, brainstorm, and express sincere gratitude to the dedicated social workers, well-wishers, and generous donors who have been integral to the success of Sapna. The General Secretary Dr. Sudhir Pratap Singh extended a warm welcome to the invites and took the opportunity to recount the remarkable journey of Sapna. He highlighted the organization's achievements throughout the year and outlined ambitious plans for future development. In a heartfelt gesture, the General Secretary expressed profound thanks to the committed donors whose unwavering support has been instrumental in sustaining Sapna's impactful initiatives. Additionally, he acknowledged the selfless efforts of the social workers who embody the spirit of 'sewa' in their dedication to keeping the vision of Sapna alive. The Thanksgiving function at Vijay Mandir encapsulated not only gratitude but also a shared commitment to continued growth and positive impact in the service of the community.

BALLAD

On December 16, 2023, Sapna Shikshalaya, in collaboration with Ahad Anhad, organized BALLAD, a Children's Festival at Vijay Mandir, Alwar. This unique festival brought together a diverse range of elements, including words, ideas, colors, experiments, music, and delightful surprises.

The event featured an incredible lineup of storytellers, theatre experts, artists, scientists, and musicians.

The festival's highlights included dramatized storytelling sessions, innovative craft projects, an open session exploring the spirit of science and the cosmos, a specially curated film festival, and a workshop on climate change and the significance of renewable energy. One notable activity involved a group of girls mentored by Jan Madhyam creating solar torches, contributing to both their learning and environmental consciousness.

The book library established at the venue proved to be a significant attraction, fostering a love for reading and knowledge among attendees. The success of the festival wouldn't have been possible without the contributions of key individuals, and special thanks were extended to Jan Madhyam, Sujata Prasad (Executive Member of Sapna), Ordan Das (Scenographer), Arjun Pandey (Filmmaker), and Argha Kamal Ganguly (Artist), Dr. Chandra Ghosh Jain (Story book maker) for their invaluable support.

BALLAD emerged as a vibrant celebration that engaged children and attendees in a creative and educational experience, thanks to the collaborative efforts of Sapna Shikshalaya and Ahad Anhad.

Glimpse of BALLAD Festival

Inter-school Debate Competition

Sapna Shikshalaya organized an Inter-School Debate Competition at its campus on October 20, 2023. The topic of the debate, 'Is social media a Boon or Bane for society?' is highly relevant in today's digital age. Ten prominent schools from Alwar participated, each offering a unique perspective on the topic. The exchange of ideas among the participating schools was not only lively but also inspiring, showcasing the intellectual prowess of their students.

The competition was judged by Ms. Asha Kachru and Mr. Anubandh Rai, who played a crucial role in evaluating the diverse viewpoints presented by the participants. After a thorough evaluation, St. Anselm School, Alwar, emerged as the winner of the competition. The winning school, along with the runner-up, was honored with a gleaming running trophy and a cash prize. As a token of appreciation for the efforts of all participants, each school received a set of books and certificates.

Overall, such events play a crucial role in fostering critical thinking, public speaking skills, and healthy debate among students.

Participated in Art Mela for World Peace

Students from Sapna Shikshalaya actively participated in the Annual Art Mela for World Peace organized by Nirwanvan Foundation, Dadikar. This eight-day event attracts artists from all around the world to volunteer. Our students joined in the festivities for two days. On the first day, October 5th, 2023, 35 students accompanied by three teachers participated in various art activities. On October 9th, 2023, the final day of the Art Mela, our students performed the song 'Raghupati Raghav Raja Ram'.

Gandhi Jayanti

Gandhi Jayanti was celebrated with full enthusiasm in the Sapna Shikshalaya. The day started with Gandhiji Bhajan and a short speech about Gandhiji and how he contributed to the freedom struggle of the country and selfless service for the nation. All students and teachers contributed by doing shramdan in Vijay Mandir campus, Mahatma Gandhi Netralaya, Dadikar and Mahila Surkasha Evam Salah Kendra.

School Picnic

On October 31st, the children from Sapna Shikshalaya Nursery, LKG, and Prep classes had a picnic at Nehru Park. They had a great time riding a toy train, boating on the water, and celebrating Halloween. They also had a lot of fun on the swings.

German Language Class

Sapna Shikshalaya has introduced a new language into its curriculum the German language. The German language class provides students with the opportunity to learn one of the most widely spoken languages in Europe.

Ms. Asha Kachru, the German language trainer, teaches students two days a week for two hours each day. Initially, she starts with the German alphabet song and introduces students to some general sentences commonly used in daily communication. Additionally, Ms. Kachru educates students about German culture, history, and literature. Through a variety of activities, students not only learn German vocabulary and grammar but also enhance their listening and speaking skills.

140 bedded Home for Homeless inaugurated on 24th October 2023

We are happy to share that the construction of Anandam, a 140-bed home dedicated to providing shelter for the homeless, is nearing completion. Two fully functional halls on the upper ground floor are now operational, marking a significant milestone in our efforts to provide a supportive environment for those in need. The 20 male residents from Anandam, Vijay Mandir, and Anandam Dadikar have shifted to the new building, enhancing their living conditions. We extend our sincere gratitude to the REC Foundation for their invaluable support under Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR), making this initiative possible and contributing to the well-being of those seeking refuge at Anandam.

09. Visits during Quarter

A) Rural Electrification Corporation Limited (REC) Visit

On November 21, 2023, a team from REC conducted a site visit to Anandam, a 140-bedded home for the homeless currently under construction. This significant project has been generously funded by REC under their Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) initiative. During the visit, the REC team thoroughly inspected the construction site and expressed their satisfaction with the progress and quality of the work being carried out.

A concise presentation was delivered to the REC team, outlining the utilization of the funds they provided and detailing how the financial support has been effectively employed in the ongoing construction of Anandam, the 140-bedded home for the homeless.

B) Management Development Institute (MDI) Visit

We successfully conducted the National Immersion Program in Sustainability Management (NIPSM) for PGDM students from the Management Development Institute from October 14 to October 18, 2023. The NIPSM is a unique initiative designed to provide PGDM students with a firsthand, real-life experience concerning the practical challenges related to development and governance issues in rural India. A total of 26 participants actively engaged in the program, which included visits to various Civil Society Organizations (CSOs) such as Ibtada, Sapna, and Nirvana Foundation. Throughout the immersion, participants gained insights into a diverse array of critical issues, including education, micro-finance, women empowerment, community development, social welfare, and local governance.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to Shri Yates Yadav Ji, Executive Director of Ibtada, Rajesh Singh, Former Executive Director of Ibtada, and Shri Nirvan Ji, Founder of Nirvana Foundation, for graciously permitting the participants to visit and witness the commendable initiatives and impactful work undertaken by their respective organizations.

10. DRI Goat Rearing Livelihood Project

In March 2022, the Goat Rearing Livelihood Program was launched with the aim of enhancing the annual income of underprivileged families, as part of the CSR initiatives of Desiccant Rotors International Pvt. Ltd.

The first phase, carried out on 26th April 2023, involved providing two goats to 25 families, with the second phase following on 3rd March 2023 benefiting an extra 25 families,

In the ongoing mission, the third phase, executed on 5th October 2023, involved providing two goats to 13 families.

We extend our sincere appreciation to Bry Air (Asia) Pvt. Ltd for their generous support and funding, which has played a crucial role in the success of this project.

11. DRI Sustainable Agriculture Resource Center

In October, the Agriculture Resource Center successfully produced 400kg of vermicompost, followed by an increased production of 750kg in December. As part of our commitment to supporting local agriculture, we have distributed some portions of the vermicompost to farmers, utilizing some quantities for the benefit of the Sapna nursery. The surplus quantity was sold to nursery owners. We are grateful to Desiccant Rotors International Pvt Ltd for supporting this initiative under CSR.
